

AUSTRALIAN MADE

Amazing Aussie inventions crossword

Solve the clues on page 2 about some amazing Australian inventions, then write the answer in the correct space to solve the crossword.

Across

1. In 1996, a team of scientists invented an anti-flu medication called _____.
3. Mechanical _____ were invented in 1877.
5. Professor Graeme Clark invented this type of ear.
6. Wi-_____ was invented by a team at the CSIRO.
9. In 1960, the Scientific Optical Laboratories invented spectacles made from _____.
11. The _____ drill was invented by Arthur James Arnot in 1889.
12. The black _____ flight recorder is actually orange.
13. This lifesaving medical equipment was invented in 1928.
17. The dual flush _____, invented by Bruce Thompson in 1980, is found in most Australian homes.
20. Dr David Solomon, from the CSIRO, invented the polymer _____ in 1988.
21. In 1961, this type of scanner was invented by David Robinson and George Kossoff.

Down

1. This item keeps our food cold and was originally invented by James Harrison in 1856.
2. This popular sun protection cream was created by the Fauldings pharmaceutical company.
4. Jack Grant of QANTAS developed this type of escape slide.
5. Stainless steel _____ for teeth were invented in 1956.
7. The Hills _____ clothesline is an iconic Australian invention from 1945.
8. This was invented by J.A. Birchall in 1902 and is handy when you need to write something down.
10. The _____ engine was invented by the HyShot team in 2002.
14. The super _____ is a huge sponge and was invented by Gordon Withnall to soak up water at sporting grounds.
15. This type of hot water system was invented by the CSIRO.
16. If you have lots of electrical items to plug in, you might need a power _____ (invented in 1972).
18. Stephen Newman invented the multi-focal contact _____ in 1992.
19. Dr Fiona Wood (from Royal Perth Hospital) invented spray-on _____ in 1992.

AUSTRALIAN MADE

Name: _____

