

DEMOCRACY DOWN UNDER

Where do I go?

Name/s: _____

Australia has three levels of government: federal, state and local. Each one is responsible for making laws and decisions about specific matters.

Below there are some scenarios. Circle if this matter would relate to federal, state or local government.

An endangered bird in your local area needs protecting. Local State Federal	Your parent needs some information about income tax. Local State Federal	One of the lights is broken at the park in your neighbourhood. Local State Federal
The national highway between two capital cities needs repair. Local State Federal	Your uncle lost his job and needs income support. Local State Federal	You realise it is time to register your dog. Local State Federal
You want to check the latest census statistics for a school project. Local State Federal	Your distant family would like to immigrate to Australia. Local State Federal	You would like some information about joining the defence forces. Local State Federal
You want to find out about the government's hospital policies. Local State Federal	There is a water leak in your street and it is causing flooding. Local State Federal	Your bin has not been collected for two weeks and it is starting to smell. Local State Federal

<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Lower Primary	Primary	Middle Years