

MIXED ACTIVITIES

Solutions

Define that word (1)

Hothouse

b. Another name for a greenhouse.

Sampan

d. A small, flat bottomed boat.

Textile

a. Material used for making clothes.

Chive

c. A small, onion flavoured herb.

Wallow

d. To roll in the mud.

Posy

c. A small bunch of flowers.

Krill

b. The favourite food of many whales.

Foxtrot

a. A formal dance.

Drake

b. A male duck.

Stucco

c. Used for decorating walls or ceilings.

Polygon

b. A figure with multiple straight sides.

Vacate

a. To no longer occupy.

Acorn

d. The fruit of the oak tree.

Nimble

b. Able to move very quickly and easily.

Murmur

c. A low sound, unable to be understood.

Gills

d. The organs with which a fish breathes.

MIXED ACTIVITIES

Define that word (2)

SNOWDROP

- b. A small white flower.

SHANTY

- c. Originally a song sung by sailors.

JOYSTICK

- d. Used to control an aircraft or an aircraft in a computer game.

SKEWBALD

- b. A brown and white patched horse.

RENDEZVOUS

- d. A meeting held at a specific time.

SNAZZY

- a. Someone with a very stylish look.

JUNKET

- d. A sweet custard.

OPULENT

- b. Displaying a lot of wealth.

HALTER

- c. Placed on a horse for easy leading.

SLAPDASH

- b. Careless work.

VELCRO

- d. Used to fasten material together.

MERINO

- b. A breed of sheep.

ALPHA

- a. The first letter of the Greek alphabet.

OMNIVOROUS

- d. Something that eats meat and plants.

FLIBBERTIGIBBET

- b. A silly, flighty person.

ENDIVE

- a. A lettuce-like vegetable.

MIXED ACTIVITIES

Define that word (3)

Audible

- b. Something heard clearly and distinctly.

Drone

- c. A male honey bee.

Bale

- b. A bundle of hay bound together.

Gaggle

- b. A flock of geese.

Lathe

- d. A machine used for shaping wood.

Croissant

- a. A bun made from flaky pastry.

Nimbus

- c. A type of cloud.

Hammock

- c. A bed tied between two trees (or posts).

Watt

- c. A unit of electrical power.

Queue

- c. A line of people.

Luminous

- a. Something bright and shiny.

Tenant

- d. A person who pays rent for a room or house.

Labyrinth

- b. A network of winding passages.

Snoop

- a. To search secretly.

Hibernate

- d. To sleep all winter.

Topsy turvy

- b. Something jumbled or all mixed up.

MIXED ACTIVITIES

Define that word (4)

Tale

- c. A report, narrative or story.

Amphibious

- d. Something that travels on both land and water.

Botany

- a. The science of studying plants.

Yearling

- b. An animal which is one year old.

Prostomium

- b. The lobe at the head end of a worm.

Market

- a. A place where goods are bought, sold or exchanged.

Recite

- d. To repeat something from memory.

Kiddle

- c. Used to start a fire.

Connect

- a. To tie or fasten things together.

Perimeter

- c. Distance around the outside of an area.

Stole

- a. A wide scarf-like piece of clothing.

Flutter

- c. The action of a birds' wings when flying.

Withdraw

- c. To draw back or retreat.

Fad

- b. A craze or something in fashion.

Innovation

- a. An invention.

Skim

- d. To remove a substance floating on the surface of something.

MIXED ACTIVITIES

Define that word (5)

Mistletoe

- b. A shrubby plant with white fruits.

Tinsel

- c. A Christmas tree decoration.

Opt

- b. To make a choice to do something.

Foliage

- b. Leaves of trees or plants.

Trifle

- a. A question or activity of little value or importance.

Rein

- c. A long strap – part of a horse's bridle.

Leisure

- c. Time free from everyday work.

Cove

- b. A small bay.

Nurture

- a. To bring up or raise.

Magnify

- d. To enlarge.

Verdict

- a. The finding of a jury at trial.

Latitude

- c. The distance by which a point on Earth is north or south of the equator.

Preface

- d. An introduction at the front of a book.

Wig

- b. An artificial covering of hair.

Dissuade

- b. To advise against something.

Grizzle

- b. Complaining all the time.

MIXED ACTIVITIES

Define that word (6)

Garnish

- b. To decorate food for serving.

Skillet

- c. A flat pan used for cooking food.

Pigment

- d. A colouring used for making dyes.

Waterfowl

- b. A freshwater swimming bird.

Encore

- a. A repeated or additional performance at the end of a concert. Usually called for by the audience.

Lanky

- d. Someone who is very tall and thin.

Rebate

- c. A refund on an amount of money paid.

Stalactite

- d. Lime spikes hanging from a cave roof.

Terrain

- a. A stretch of land.

Butterbean

- b. A large white bean.

Interpol

- c. An organisation through which police from different countries work together.

Zeal

- b. Energy or enthusiasm.

Tussock

- d. A clump of grass.

Payroll

- a. Money paid to a list of company employees.