Becoming Organic

To be certified ‘organic’, farmers need to follow some strict rules and regulations. Read the information about organic farming in ‘Facts for Students’ (on the FTfs website – your teacher can help you find this) and conduct your own research to complete the flow chart on the process that farmers need to follow to be labelled as ‘certified organic’. Include any illustrations or descriptions.